Democratic Plum Pudding.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 24.—Thanksgiving weather was clear and cold. Business was generally suspended. Services were held in many churches. The feature of the evening celebration was the cutting of a mammoth Cleveland and Stevenson Democratic plum pudding by Senator John W. Daniel. The revised weight of the pudding was 271 pounds that being the latest estimate of the electoral votes received by Cleveland. A twelve pound slice was sent each of the successful candidates, twelve being the electoral vote of Virginia.

A Tribute to Roger Q. Mills.

Democrats and republicans concur in the belief that the main reason for the tariff reform, but is it not singular that while praise is being meted out on all sides to those most deserving and otherwise, the old original pioneer of tariff reform should be overlooked entirely—the warrior who stumped the western states from border to border, the first reformer who dared carry the fight into the enemy's camp? I speak of Roger Q. Mills. Surely he has a place in this great victory.

C. B. MULLALLY.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 12.

Chicago Ill., Nov. 24.—About 9 o'clock the people of this city who were out were able to see a grand shower of meteors, and the sight will not soon be forgotten, as it lasted nearly an hour, the sky being quite clear. The phenomena was visible the whole time.

Won a Wife on Cleveland.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 12.—Henry Rudolph, residing at Evanston, this State, has for several years sought the hand of Miss Lawrence, of the same place, but unsuccessfully. Just after the Chicago convention

Miss Lawrence bet Rudolph that Cleveland would not win, the stake being her hand. Tuesday night Rudolph came to this city to get the returns. He was the most anxious man in town. When it became known that Cleveland had been elected he was wild. Yesterday morning he returned to Evanston, brought Miss Lawrence to the city, and married her.

Famous Women.

Baroness Burdett Coutts, although 80 years old, avows an intention to come to the World's Fair at the head of the philanthropic section.

Amelie Fives Chanler is fond of equestrian exercise and is quite at her ease in the saddle. She may be often seen riding into Richmond from her country home.

Dora Wheeler, the artist, has grown rounded and matronly with maturity. Always a tall woman with a wonderfully fine carriage and classic features, her figure now is that of a young Juno.

Queen Christina of Spain has been suffering a great deal lately from neuralgia, induced by the perpetual anxieties of the Regency and by the very delicate health of the little King.

Miss Alice Barth, a promising young artist of Baltimore, has just completed a fine oil portrait of the venerable Enoch Pratt, which he will present to the Pratt Free School at North Middleboro, Mass., founded by him about 30 years ago.

Mlle. Rose Bonheur is still hard at work, notwithstanding her advanced age. She has just finished three small pictures—a cattle-piece, a study of a sleeping lioness, and an exquisite flock of Pyrenean sheep with their shepherd.

Fresh Little Joker and Duke's Mixture received by every steamer at Celestin Jagou's.

Budweiser and Pale Lager Beer at Celestin Jagou.
